Day 2: Marrakech, Morocco

Marrakech Foodie Experience

DepartureTimes: 09:00

Duration: 4 hrs.

Follow your guide through the winding city streets back to a riad to kick off your food experience. Pick up a few Arabic words that you'll put to use as you bargain for ingredients like vegetables, meat and, most importantly, spices at the local souq. During your shopping trip you'll be on the lookout for typical Moroccan ingredients including mint and olives from the city of Meknes, saffron from Taliouine and citrus from Fez.

Once you've finished your shopping, return to your riad to begin your hands-on cooking session. Follow your guide's instructions as you prepare a typical Moroccan dish such as tagine or the comparable tangia (composed of couscous with vegetables and meat), pastila (an apple-based dessert) or harira (a traditional North African soup served with dates). Afterwards, dig into your freshly-prepared meal set inside the beautiful courtyard of your riad. You'll also leave your session with a recipe sheet, allowing you to re-create your dish when you return home (and impress family and friends). Finish your culinary experience by returning to the city's Djemaa El Fna, where you can continue your day by shopping for spices and immersing yourself in the whirlwind of smells, sights and sounds that characterise this unique city.
