Day 3: Hong Kong, China

Hong Kong 48-Hour Pass & Night Experience

Departure Times: 09:30-18:00

Duration: 48 hrs.

Get around Hong Kong easily with a 1-day pass for the MTR (Mass Transit Railway). Your pass is valid for three different transportation options: a light-rail system, trains and feeder buses. Hong Kong's major districts are covered, including stops at the border of mainland China. On the 10 different rail lines, you can travel to places like Sheung Wan, Central and Causeway Bay on the Island Line, and Disneyland on the Disneyland Resort Line.

Get a bird's-eye view of Lantau Island on the Ngong Ping Cable Car. The aerial tram starts in Tung Chung and crosses Tung Chung Bay on the way to Lantau Island, providing sweeping views of the hills, Ngong Ping plateau, the South China Sea and the Tian Tan Buddha. Your ticket provides a round-trip ride in a standard cabin; each way is 25 minutes. The cable car arrives on the island at Ngong Ping Village, where you can join the Big Buddha walking tour.

The Walking with Buddha experience in Ngong Ping is an immersive attraction about the life of Siddhartha Gautama, a man who became Buddha. Through the show's multimedia exhibits, follow his path to enlightenment and learn about Buddhism.

Back in Ngong Ping Village, step into the Motion 360 theatre for a movie experience designed to engage all five senses. The 10-minute show takes you on an exciting virtual ride around Lantau Island, showing you the sky, land and sea. You'll feel like you're flying from the top of the Tian Tan Buddha and down into the ocean, where you dive underwater to watch Hong Kong's famous white dolphins swim and leap.
