Itinerary

Day 1: Perth - Kalbarri, Australia

Perth Pick-Up - Kalbarri (L/D)

Welcome to Western Australia! Day 1 will begin with a 7 a.m. pick-up at your Perth accommodation (only select locations). Then you will journey to your first stop of the day: Pinnacles Desert in Nambung National Park. Here, marvel at the tall, ancient limestone formations rising out of the sand dunes in this desert landscape. Visit the Discovery Centre to learn more about the Pinnacle's geology and the area's heritage. After your visit, enjoy lunch by the ocean, make a brief stop in the town of Geraldton, and then arrive in Kalbarri. Overnight in Kalbarri.

Day 2: Kalbarri - Denham, Australia

Kalbarri - Shark Bay (B/L/D)

On Day 2, explore the natural wonders of the vast Kalbarri National Park. You'll visit Murchison River Gorge, the 80-km-long gorge home to beautiful sites, trails, and fossils. Also on the list of sites for the day are Nature's Window - which provides an excellent view of the river through its wind-eroded archway - and the Z-Bend, another impressive lookout toward the river. If the weather conditions are favorable, enjoy a swim in the Murchison River before heading to Denham, home of Shark Bay. Overnight in Denham.

*Note: Today you will have the option to abseil into the Murchison River Gorge, at your own expense.

Day 3: Denham - Coral Bay, Australia

Shark Bay - Coral Bay (B/L/D)

Today you will interact with wildlife and enjoy the stunning beach at Shark Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage site. In the morning, meet the friendly dolphins that call the bay home and then relax on the beach before heading back out on the road to your next destination: the Stromatolites of Hamelin Pool. These stromatolites - structures made of carbonate or silicate sediment layers and fossilized algal mats - are known as the oldest and largest living fossils on Earth. After your visit to these geological wonders, you will finally head to your accommodation in Coral Bay. Overnight in Coral Bay.

Day 4: Coral Bay - Exmouth, Australia

Coral Bay Free Day - Exmouth (B/D)

Awaken on Day 4 in your accommodation situated right on the Ningaloo Reef, the country's largest fringing coral reef. Today, you will have free time to explore the reef and its crystal blue-green waters however you please. You might go scuba diving or snorkelling, visit the shark nursery, or even swim with whale sharks, if it's the right season. In the evening, you'll make the short drive to your accommodation in Exmouth. Overnight in Exmouth.

*Note: All optional activities today are at your own expense.

Day 5: Exmouth, Australia

Cape Range National Park - Turquoise Bay Snorkelling (B/L/D)

In the morning of Day 5, explore Cape Range National Park and its impressive limestone ranges, vast canyons, and 50km of untouched beaches. Next, snorkelling in Turquoise Bay awaits you, followed by a visit to Vlamingh Head Lighthouse and to the Milyearing Visitors Centre. You'll return to your accommodation in the late afternoon to enjoy your last night with your travel buddies and guides. Overnight in Exmouth.

*Note: There will be a $10 charge for renting snorkel gear.

Day 6: Exmouth - Kalbarri, Australia

Exmouth - Carnarvon - Kalbarri (B/L/D)

Today, bid farewell to Exmouth and visit the small town of Carnarvon. Depending on the season, you may be able to visit a local banana or mango plantation while there. Overnight on Australian wheat farm.

Day 7: Kalbarri - Perth, Australia

Kalbarri - Lancelin Sand Dunes - Caversham Wildlife Park - Perth (B/L)

On Day 7, enjoy the last views of the scenic countryside before making our way back towards Perth. We'll stop along the way at Greenough Wildlife Park where you can meet Australian wildlife and hand feed the kangaroos. Then kick back and relax on the bus for the last stretch to Perth, with drop off starting around 6.30pm Finally, board the bus one last time to relax on your drive back to Perth, where you'll conclude your adventure through Western Australia around 6:30 p.m. We wish you safe travels onward!
